Infos before hand! Please read!

This is a script of a series called "Ruby & Teardrop", a BFDI parody I made of Phineas and Ferb!

For the full experience, I recommend watching THREE of my videos! But if you don't want to, don't question why random characters are popping up, like TD, Rocky, and Flower, when the story is mostly focused on Freesmart. This also means you need to ignore the AFTER credit scene in chapter 8.5 (Not in the list, it appears in chapter 8) and the mentions of Ruby & Teardrop intro & outro playing!

Oh, and Teardrop does NOT appear a lot, except at the very end, so yes, the title is sort of a scam, but if it were to be released as a YouTube video, the script would be changed to include more Teardrop, Flower and Rocky!

Oh, and also, Me and a Person named "Eagle" worked on this! Bold texts are his writings! Go check him out! His name is "Eagle-ei1uq"

(This isn't just auditions, since auditions have been closed a LOOONG time ago, but it includes questions like explaining the random characters popping up!)
